

PhD Scholarships in the School of Liberal Arts

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION: 3 OCTOBER 2023

The University of Wollongong is offering generous PhD scholarships which can be used for higher degree study in its School of Liberal Arts, located in the Faculty of Arts, Social Sciences and Humanities. These scholarships can be used for study commencing March 2024. Interested prospective students, domestic or international, with strong credentials are encouraged to apply.

Academic staff in the School of Liberal Arts have specialist expertise in classics, literature, and philosophy, with world-leading strengths in philosophy of psychology, mind, and cognitive science. The University of Wollongong was ranked among the world's best institutions for arts and humanities in 2022 Times Higher Education World University Rankings by subject, and came first in Australia for citations in philosophy.

The School of Liberal Arts is home to a vibrant research community. It regularly hosts visiting speakers, workshops, conferences and public events. It sponsors the Critical Antiquities Network, the Agora Speaker Series, and Sophia Annual Lecture. Wollongong's close proximity to Sydney offers many opportunities to interact with researchers in the Greater Sydney area.

Interested applicants are encouraged to make initial contact with academics in the School of Liberal Arts who might serve as supervisors to discuss potential proposals. Details of areas of expertise and supervisory specialisms are available on the School of Liberal Arts Honours and Higher Degree Research page

ELIGIBILITY AND APPLICATION DETAILS

PhD scholarship applicants are required to supply a record of excellent academic performance, and must have attained one of the following qualifications: Honours First Class, or equivalent, or a Masters by Research, or equivalent. Additional relevant research experience, peer-reviewed research publications, awards and prizes will be regarded favourably.

For further information about the online application process, please consult with the School's Head of Postgraduate Studies, Dr. Talia Morag at tmorag@uow.edu.au (enquiries before 18 July 2023) or Associate Professor Glenda Stane gsatne@uow.edu.au (enquiries from 18 July).

The PhD scholarship stipend is 29,863 AUD per year, for a period of 3 years with a possible 6 months extension. For further information see here

